

Semi-Weekly Interior Journal.

VOL. XVI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, JULY 5, 1887.

NO. 243.

Semi-Weekly Interior Journal

Published Tuesdays and Fridays

AT—

33 PER ANNUM, CASH.

understood if we could that $2.50 will be accepted and deemed.

W. P. WALTON.

MT SALEM LINCOLN COUNTY.

—Crops in this section look very well, though corn is needing some rain. Wheat is not turning out very well. Stock well fattening and with more well provided with the season.

—Hed, on the 30th inst., at the residence of his son, Mr. W. Lewis, near the town of Lewis, of Lincoln county, aged 85 years. Two months ago he came on a visit to his son, but becoming ill, and the weather unfavorable, it was not thought prudent for him to go home. Tuesday morning he was more lively than usual and went to the table and ate his breakfast, but in the evening was taken ill and at 6 o'clock had passed away. Mr. Lewis was a native of Virginia, having come to this state at the age of 12 years. He never left out of his country. He was the last of a family of extreme longevity, several of his brothers and sisters reaching the age of 100 years, and his mother died at the advanced age of 105 years.

—John Coulter, who has always prided himself on his superior sagacity over his friends and associates in no being "taken in" or "duped," recently followed a victim to the laughing stock of the town. After the agent left, Jim even came to his own senses and put on a new suit of clothes, which he had bought at a bargain, and which he had been wearing for some time. He had been wearing the same old suit for some time, and he had been wearing it for some time.

General Buckner's first wife was Miss Kingsbury, a new England girl living at Lyme, Conn. They were married, says the Hartford Times, in the old Champaign House, still standing. Old residents who attended the ceremony say Lieut. Buckner was a dashing appearing young fellow and in his new uniform looked every inch a general. Just as the officiating clergyman pronounced the final words of the service there was an alarm of fire; a neighbor's house was burning.

The bridegroom threw off his coat and with the minister and the guests ran to extinguish the flames. Lieut. Buckner rendered efficient service and rescued an aged colored servant from the burning house. Then he returned, rested, kissed the bride and received the congratulations of his friends. The young officer took his bride to his Kentucky home and nearly every succeeding summer until the breaking out of the civil war he came on and spent a few days at Lyme, bringing his wife with him.

When it became evident that trouble was to come between the two sections of the country, Mrs. Buckner made over a large amount of real estate she owned in Chicago to her brother, then a lieutenant in the regular army. This course was adopted because no fraction was feared and with the understanding that Lieut. Kingsbury held the property in trust for the Kingdom was afterward made colonel of a Connecticut regiment and was mortally wounded on the field of battle.

With almost his last breath he recalled his trust and willed his property, not to his sister, but to her husband. It was claimed by his mother, however, and when the war ended the case was fought in the courts for years, but finally the nuncupate will was admitted to probate. The cost of the long suit was very heavy and it is said that the Buckner paid his leading counsel the sum of $100,000.

THE FIDO BUSINESS.—The purpose of the President, however, was praiseworthy and patriotic, because his object was the complete removal, not of the memories, but the results of the war, but of the little signs and relics of the terrible conflict that were prolonging an irritation of feeling which every generous American would gladly allay. Neither the grandeur of the national cause nor the glorious heroism and devotion of the national soldiers requires that kind of memorial. —[Harper's Weekly.]

Why not have hoe handles flat or oval like ax-handles? With such a handle the workman can strike more accurately and so work nearer the plants, because the hoe will not turn in his hands. The edge will wear evenly and the hoe lasts longer than with the old round handle. The wrist is not so soon tired nor the hands cramped with the flat handle. When you come to repair the old hoe put an oval handle in one of them. —[Farm Journal.]

HUSTONVILLE, LINCOLN COUNTY.

—Not a particle of news of any interest. —Eld. W. L. Williams is able to leave his room and seems to be recovering his wonted health.

—The thrasher is at work, but most of our farmers prefer stacking their grain rather than sell at the present low prices. —Dry weather, parching crops, high thermometers and low water level the burden of the daily plaint when men do congregate.

—One hundred years ago men would have secured the idea that Independence Day would ever pass into forgetfulness, deprived of its prestige, its glory dimmed, its memories obliterated. Then it was the theme of the pulpit, the inspiration of the rostrum, the stimulus of the poet, the favorite topic of the patriot, the soul thrilling music to which the flagging orator plumed his soaring pinions and soared in quest of immortality. But the change has come. The increase of power, the progress of art, science and literature, the rising and startling events of history have cast a shadow over the simple annals of our earlier days. And yet it may be doubted whether in the essentials—wisdom, patriotism, statesmanship, rectitude of character, ethical honesty, virtue or eloquence—the change has shown an upward tendency. One thing is certain—the past has left to us a priceless legacy, a glorious history, an untarnished escutcheon, a brave and almost boundless territory, enlarged capabilities and increased responsibility. The past was devoted in wisdom, the foundation of a grand commonwealth securely laid. It remains to be seen whether the present is a worthy continuation of so great a task. The changes through which we are constantly passing, the dangers by which we are constantly surrounded, the example of former nations, all warn us to guard with vigilance our consecrated heritage, to train the rising generation in self-sacrifice, to maintain the principles which we have bequeathed to posterity, to accept the trust that fathers have bequeathed to us, and to become responsible for its transmission to our successors with brighter, better hopes, extended influence and undiminished life.

The technique business is good enough thing in its way, but it must not be expected to supply the usual methods of getting out the vote. There is no organization about a barbecue. It is, at best, a frolic and a burlesque, at which people get enthralled in a general way and to that extent good is done. But barbecues are simply extra "trimmings" to the campaign. The real work is to be effected by local organizations and by holding meetings in every precinct. At every county seat in the State there are from two to half a dozen young gentlemen who can make good speeches, and who will be glad to "stump" their counties if called on to do so. The State Central Committee should see to it that their services are enlisted. —[S. M. R. in C. J.]

It is very pleasant to observe that in the discussion of the battle-flag question, almost every expression from the South is good-natured. The South does not want the flag; they are all right where they are; they are not worth a bad word or thought. This is the universal sentiment from the South and it shows the perfect eloquence of a few Northern politicians, with their theatrical curses and desperate appeals. Indeed the discussion has not disturbed the era of good feeling, but has confirmed it, by showing how far the South has left the war behind in its new record of progress, and how easy it feels in its natural relations with the old flag. —[Boston Herald.]

W. H. Dunn's 57 high grade cows were purchased in Wilson and Sumner last November. They were put on straw fields and bluegrass; they weighed 917 average, costing 3 cents. Commenced to feed corn Feb. 14th and continued until April 20th. They consumed three barrels each, when they were put on clover and on June 14th they averaged 1,300 pounds and are considered the best bunch of cattle in the county. They are taking on three pounds daily. Mr. Dunn put 72 shots, weighing 90 pounds, with the cattle when he commenced to feed the corn. They averaged 222 pounds when sold May 4th at 1 cent. Mr. Dunn prefers red clover above all grasses for fattening steers. —[Farmers' Home Journal.]

—Mrs. Fannie Hill celebrated the 100th anniversary of her birth at Elizabethtown Saturday. An active participant in the celebration was Mr. John W. Hill, the husband, who only lacks one year of being a century old himself.

—The government has instituted suit against the Fidelity National Bank of Cincinnati for the forfeiture of its franchise and the dissolution of the bank, the ground upon which the suit is based being 1st, the making of a fraudulent statement as to the bank's condition May 13th, 1887; loaning a sum in excess of one tenth part of the capital stock of the bank actually paid in; increasing the capital stock of the bank without the approval of the comptroller; making loans to divers persons named, taking as security therefor stock of their own bank; not having on hand May 13 and on divers days before and after that date, the 25 per cent. reserve required by law; and knowingly permitting the over certification of checks.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—J. T. Williams is building a commodious addition to his general and provision store.

—The glorious 4th was observed in ancient form and manner by the K. of L. of Pittsburg.

—A light rainfall Sunday evening served in a measure to lay the dust. More rain is badly needed for growing crops.

—The job work received from the Interior Journal office by several of our business men is pronounced by them first class and gives perfect satisfaction.

—The funeral of old Uncle Sam McKee, of color, was preached at the church Sunday, a large number of colored brethren, men and women, being present to hear the big guns from the blue grass. "Uncle Sam" died in his bed, peacefully, at the age of 80.

—Major G. M. Adams and Gen. P. W. Harbin passed through here Sunday en route to Manchester, Pineville, Robinsonville, Washington and Somerset, at all of which places they have appointments to speak. They will be here on Monday, the 11th. Let everybody come.

—The south-bound express on Sunday morning carried four heating stoves to Jellico, Tennessee, the north-bound mail bringing them back as two. The happy parties were Dr. J. Givens and Miss Maggie Pittman and Mr. Michael Finnegan and Miss Agnes Kinner, all of Pittsburg, this county. Here's congratulations all around.

—In a drunken row at East Berstadt, Saturday night, Jim Ames fatally stabbed Bill Hall. At Pittsburg, or a drive near there, Tom S. Ringer shot Vol. Philip in the head, inflicting a serious, but not necessarily fatal wound, Saturday night. These parties were so celebrated the 4th in advance.

—Dr. J. D. Merriam, a patent medicine pedler, was robbed of his watch and $12.50 near Union Wednesday night by an unknown negro. Parties attempted the arrest at Lily the same night of two darkies, who acted suspiciously, but failed. They were afterwards arrested here, but the doctor said they were not the guilty ones.

—Mrs. John Pearl, with her pretty little daughter, joined her husband at Junction City Sunday. Her expectation to make that her home for the present. Miss Nellie Mackey has returned from her visit to Point Lick, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Ward. Elder Livingston preached at the Christian church Sunday. Little Russell Robinson nearly gazed his eye out with a button hook. J. M. Pickett has resigned his position as agent and operator at this station and left for home Sunday night. Mr. W. H. Hylwood, of Old Depot, takes his place. J. D. Smith and family are off to Lake Chautauque for the summer.

A Lost Opportunity.

Mr. George Washington Cole, of Chicago, didn't come home one evening at the usual time, nor the next day, and Mrs. Cole, becoming alarmed, began a search for him. She was not successful and after several days, as a last resort, visited the morgue. The keeper listened to her description, and then said he thought he had a subject that answered to it. The wife desired to look at the body and she was shown into the dead house.

After viewing the subject pointed out to her for several minutes, Mrs. Cole burst into tears and declared that the body was that of her husband. But in order to assure herself that she had made no mistake, she requested the keeper of the morgue to turn the body over and see if there was a large scar on the back of the neck. As he proceeded to do so, a set of false teeth fell out of the mouth of the corpse upon the marble slab.

"Stop!" exclaimed Mrs. Cole, waving her arms away. "George never wore false teeth." "You blamed his!" growled the keeper of the morgue, a blessing the corpse as he roughly threw it back in place and pushed up the false teeth. "If you had any kept your mouth shut you might have saved a decent burial!" —[From the Pall Mall Gazette, The American Magazine.]

—A Sumpter, Georgia, woman owned a guinea hen that wanted to escape and her nest broken up. She filled another and persisted in sitting, but her owner had determined otherwise and again broke up the nest. The poor fowl looked on sorrowfully and saw her maternal hopes blighted, turned with drooping head, walked up to the well, flew up on the curb and then plunged head foremost into the deep waters below. When they got her out she was dead. —[Atlanta Constitution.]

Drunkenness or the Liquor Habit Positively Cured by administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men by the use of this specific in their cups without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. Dr. HAINES' FALLS. The system once inaugurated with the specific it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For full particulars, address GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 185 Race St., Cincinnati, O.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

MT VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—A large number of our citizens are taking advantage of the low rates on the road to visit friends.

—A District S. S. Convention will be held at Parcell, two miles west of this place on July 16th and 17th.

—The Kibbournite News has it "Col. J. M. Adams. Don't they know a 'Major' when they see him, and he one of their citizens, too?"

—Patience Harris, a 17 year old boy, was arrested Saturday charged with selling whisky on Stage's Creek. He was released on giving bond.

—It is a good time for petty offenders to get in their work now as there is no jail here, the old one is a thing of the past and it has been allowed to remain while longer it would have fallen of its own accord.

—The old adage "You may lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink," was never more true than when the Prohibitionists were gently lead up to the republican trough but refused to eat.

—Why can't some of the church officers see to it that the gutter on the south side of the cupula on their building is replaced, so as to prevent the rain from pouring through and destroying the plastering?

—Thompson & Fish, successors to F. L. Thompson, will have a full stock of everything in the goods line by July 5th. Come and see us. The old firm asks that you come in and examine your account and see if it is correct and let us start anew. The new firm expects to do a good business and all should take advantage of first class goods and low prices.

—The democrats, as it now seems, will probably have no candidate for the legislature and many prominent ones of that party here are urging the claim of Mr. W. C. Webb of Pittsburg, a Knight of Labor candidate, under the impression that with the number of Labor votes pledged, and a boost from the democrats will carry Mr. Webb ahead of Mr. Ward, the republican candidate.

—Mrs. W. M. Weber and family are here from Knoxville for the summer. Mr. J. A. Dickey, a prominent contractor on the C. V. Branch and other roads, was here Saturday. Miss Annie Evans left for Zanesville, Ohio, Sunday, accompanied by her father as far as Cincinnati. Dr. A. G. Love is here from Louisville. Little Miss Lela Williams, of your place, is visiting relatives here.

—Dick Webb's little dog "Jack" was the means of saving the lives of two negro tramps a few nights since by barking furiously at them when they were lying asleep on the track under a box car. Dick went out to ascertain the trouble and waked the darkies up a few minutes before a freight train came in on the siding and pushed the car along. The frightened Africans wanted to buy the dog but Dick refused to part with his valued companion.

—The saw mill of James Tate, 3 miles East of Brodhead, was burned Friday at noon with 5,000 feet of dressed lumber. The fire started while all the hands were at dinner and was under too great headway when discovered to be extinguished. This is the second time Mr. Tate has had the misfortune to have his mill burned. He never gives up, though. He went immediately to another mill and ordered lumber for rebuilding.

—The republicans completed their convention last Saturday and declared their choice, which was a foregone conclusion some time ago, to be Samuel Ward, of Livingston, as a candidate for the Legislature. The Prohibitionists also brought their much continued convention to a close without making any nomination. One wing of their party was for declaring Mr. Ward their candidate, but the proposition met with much opposition, and Mr. W. was sent for and when he was asked how he stood on the Prohibition question he endorsed most of their platform and it appeared for a while he would receive the nomination of two conventions, but the motion to that effect was overruled and after a little wrangling over the question the convention dispersed of its own accord without nominating any one or the formality of being adjourned. Mr. John Melvin was strongly spoken of as their probable candidate.

—The statement is made that the peach crop in Trimble county this year will be between 150,000 and 200,000 bushels, which will put a very large amount of money in circulation in that county.

—The Wine and Spirit Association of Ohio, embracing many of the liquor dealers that State, has passed a resolution endorsing the action of the Kentucky distillers in ceasing operations for one year, and pledging themselves not to handle any whiskey made between July 1st, 1887, and July 1st, 1888, and not to deal hereafter with a distiller who makes a run during that time.

—The pension office report shows there have been issued during the year 55,377 pensions of all kinds, originals, widows and other dependent on pension certificates. This is the highest year in the history of the government and exceeds exactly by 5,000 the number issued in 1886, the first year after the war when the facilities for securing testimony were far greater than they now are.

FOR SALE!

A good set of Turner's Tools and a lot of Turner's Supplies. Will sell cheap.
J. H. C. SIMPSON,
Middleburg, Ky.

MILLINERY.

I am daily opening an elegant line of spring and summer millinery, including all

The Latest Novelties of the Season.

Also notions, such as Handkerchiefs, Collars and Cuffs, Hosiery, Corsets, Belts, etc. You will find most of the novelties lately created by Sutter & Warren, next door to the Myers House.

KATE DUDDELL.

WM. AYRES.

AYRES & GIVENS.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

511 Fifth Street,

LOUISVILLE, - - KY.

Rooms 3 and 5, Crane Block. (1st fl.)

PEARSON & CLARK,

Wholesale Grocers

LEXINGTON, KY.

12 & 14 West Main Street.

203-6m

WILLIS HOUSE.

MAIN ST., RICHMOND, KY.

J. B. WILLIS, Proprietor.

For a good Table

And clean and well furnished rooms, this Hotel has no superior. Good sample rooms attached.

Room Rates $2.00 per day. 201-ly

JACKSON HOUSE,

LONDON, KY.

F. B. RILEY, Proprietor.

Thoroughly Renovated and Refurnished throughout. First-class Fare and reasonable prices. Day and night tables are met by polite porters of this popular House.

202-m.

Stanford Female College.

ALEX. S. PAXTON, PRES.

Next Session will begin on Thursday, the 1st of September

Instruction thorough, and discipline kind, but firm. Graduates on their different courses arranged to suit the tastes and capacities of girls. Orders special attention in the departments of Art and Music. Send for catalogue.

202-ly

LOUIS SCHLEGEL,

PHOTOGRAPHER,

RICHMOND, KENTUCKY.

Photographs in all styles and sizes.

Pictures in India Ink, Crayon and Water Colors.

New designs in Frames and Mats at very low prices.

201-ly.

PUBLIC SALE!

As Trustee under a deed of Trust executed to me by J. A. Moore & Co., of Kings Mountain, and John Church & Son, the said deed of Trust, I will

ON WEDNESDAY, JULY 13TH, 1887,

At the business house of J. A. Moore & Co., at Kings Mountain Station, Cincinnati Southern R. R., offer at public auction to the highest bidder, 1st, The stock of Merchandise and Drugs, which was conveyed to me by J. A. Moore & Co. by the deed of trust.

2nd, About 77 acres of land, with moderate improvements, lying in Pulaski County, 2 1/2 miles east of Science Hill, on the Cincinnati Southern R. R.

TERMS.—The personalty will be sold in bulk—on a credit of 30 days—with good security. The real estate will be sold for half cash and balance in 30 days, note with good security. Deed will be made when terms are complied with.

Address all communications to me at Hustonville, Lincoln County, Ky.

EDWARD J. COOK,

Trustee for J. A. Moore & Co.

211-ly

MONON ROUTE

LOUISVILLE, NEW ALBANY & CHICAGO RY.

A NEW FAST MAIL

—LEAVING BOTH—

LOUISVILLE & CINCINNATI

Daily, secure to travelers

THE MOST RAPID SERVICE

Ever attempted between the great commercial cities on the Ohio River and Chicago, and between the West and the East, and the East and the West. The counterpart of this train on all trunk lines is denominated The Limited Express. The superior rolling stock we employ gives patrons Unlimited Comfort.

At all Union Ticket Offices in the South you will find our time tables and tickets, say Monon, get Monon and stick to Monon, if you want to save money and have a pleasant journey.

General Passenger Agent, Chicago.

City Ticket Agents and Others:

E. A. BUCKNER, 227 1/2 Ave., Louisville, Ky.

L. M. TOWNSEND, 129 Vine St., Cincinnati, O.

WALTON'S OPERA HOUSE,

—STANFORD, KY.—

WALTON BROS. - - Proprietors

Close of Stage, 20-30. Elegant complete sets of scenery. Seating capacity, including gallery, 600. Reasonable rates to good attractions.

GOLD WATCH LOST!

Between the Hustonville Toll Gate and the Cemetery. Can be recovered by Fig. J. on the case. A liberal reward will be paid for the return to 26-242

NOTICE!

sealed bids will be received by S. J. Cone, Moreland, Ky., for the construction of

The Hustonville & Company's Section Turnpike

Until 12 o'clock on Monday July 11, 1887. Specifications can be seen at S. J. Cone's. The right to reject any or all bids reserved.

J. K. BAUGHMAN.

NOTICE

Is hereby given that the partnership, heretofore existing between the undersigned under the name of Penny & McAlister, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. A. L. Penny takes all the assets and assumes all the liabilities of the firm and will continue the firm in his own name.

A. L. PENNY.

GEO. McALISTER.

The retiring partner hereby tenders his thanks for the patronage heretofore extended to the firm and hopes and requests that it may be continued to the successor. (204-45). GEO. McALISTER.

TAXES! TAXES!

The New Revenue Law adds six per cent. to all taxes payable by the first day of September and I will have to collect it. So please come for ward and settle.

2-2m. T. D. NEWLAND, S. L. C.

NEWCOMB HOTEL.

MT VERNON, KY.

This old and well-known Hotel is still maintaining its fine reputation. Charges reasonable. Special attention to the traveling public.

M. P. NEWCOMB, Prop'r.

Att. Vernon, Ky.

ICE! ICE! ICE!

I will deliver to regular customers in Stanford and vicinity every morning at

One Cent Per Pound.

Accounts due at the close of each month or when customer quits.

R. E. BARROW.

R. S. MARTIN.

J. S. PERKINS.

BRODHEAD KY., May, 1887.

A light A. Martin beg to inform their many friends and customers of the change in firm name to

MARTIN & PERKINS.

The new firm hopes not only to sustain the reputation of the old, but intends to make many improvements in the manufacture of tobacco, which will be to the interest of our customers. We will devote special attention to our Natural Leaf brands of Kentucky's best leaf. Thanking you for past favors and asking for a continuation of your trade, we remain,

Respectfully yours,

MARTIN & PERKINS.

202-ly

$100 REWARD!

The colored Baptist church of Stanford will pay $100 reward for the arrest and conviction of the person who fired into the church and wounded Rev. George W. Billings on the night of the 22d of May.

CHAS. JACKMAN, ALEX. SHANES, DAN VAN ARD, ALEX. CARTER and ALBIE SMITH.

DR. I. S. BURDETT,

OCULIST.

BRODHEAD, KY.

Has had an experience of over fifteen years, and has successfully treated hundreds of cases. Special attention is given to the treatment of all diseases of the eyes. Name and address of patients cured given on application if desired.

200-6m

PIANOS!

The world-renowned Knabe, the famous Drexler & Son, the popular and reliable Erard. The celebrated Clough & Warren, and the John Church & Co's

ORGANS.

Any one desiring an elegant and durable musical instrument will do well to examine our prices before purchasing. We are agents for the well-known John Church & Co., and will warrant our Pianos for seven years, and our Organs for five years. The Everett Piano and the Clough & Warren Organ are the best and most reliable instruments manufactured. Our instruments can be seen at the postoffice in Stanford, where Miss Rose Richards will state prices, etc.

Persons who have purchased these instruments will testify to their durability and elegant finish. We will be glad to serve the public, and guarantee satisfaction.

Elder W. L. Williams, of Hustonville, also represents the John Church & Co., and will be pleased to serve his friends.

R. R. & L. J. COOK, Agents.

REFERENCES.

John D. Carpenter, Hustonville; J. M. Elmer, Stanford;

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

F. N. GOVERNOR—SIMON BOLIVAR BUCKNER, of Hart County.
 LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR—JAMES W. BRYAN, of Kenton county.
 ATTORNEY GENERAL—P. W. HARDIN, of Mercer county.
 AUDITOR—FAYETTE HEWITT, of Hardin county.
 TREASURER—JAMES W. TATE, of Woodford county.
 SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—JOSEPH DESHA PICKETT, of Fayette county.
 REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE—THOMAS H. CORBETT, of McCracken county.
 LEGISLATIVE—DR. J. D. PETTUS, Lincoln county.

The survivors of the famous Pickett Brigade and the Philadelphia Brigade, which withstood its terrible charge 24 years ago at Gettysburg, met on the battle ground Saturday, the former being the guest of the latter, amid the greatest good feeling and most gratifying fraternal relations. They met as brave men do and the recital of the events of the day is enough to paralyze the little souls of Fairchild, Foraker, Halstead and the other bloody scoundrels, who want to renew hostilities 20 odd years after they are closed. As Waterson recently said in one of his outbursts, "God will bless the legions of love and damn the legions of hate."

The brute Turner met his death Friday at sunrise with the same inhuman indifference that had characterized him ever since he was condemned to die. After swearing in court that Patterson assisted him in the murder of Jennie Bowman and striking to it ever since, he left a statement denying his story and upon the gallows with the noose around his neck, he said, "Flee Patterson, the man was not with me." The work of the Sheriff was splendidly done, Turner's neck being broken by the fall and all signs of life disappearing at the end of thirteen minutes.

The prohibition candidate for governor, Judge Fontaine T. Fox, spoke here yesterday to a large crowd and his following seemed much pleased with his effort. He is a good speaker and did his best to prove the rottenness of both parties and that the only salvation was in accepting his doctrine and voting for him. With a pressure of other matter we have not the space to devote to his speech that we would like to have done.

The public debt was decreased during the month of June $16,852,725 17 and during the year ending July 1st, $109,707,616.38. This is a pretty good showing for the party which the republicans claimed would bankrupt the national treasury in a year after it was voted into power. The total debt is now $1,296,281,462 19 and the total cash available for its payment is $280,489,842 38.

The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette pays its compliments as follows: The prohibition third-party crowd of howling idiots have nominated a State ticket of nobodies. There is not one of the names on the ticket ever heard of outside his own county. The whole exhibition at Delaware has been of effrontery and imbecility; and the amount of ignorance and malice displayed is surprising.

JOHN P. MURRAY, of the Bardstown Record, one of the clearest and best papers in Kentucky, announces that he has taken into partnership with him in its publication, Messrs. T. H. Morris and Harry Bacon. They are experienced men in the business and we expect to see the paper beat its past good record.

To the credit of the colored churches in Louisville he it said none of them would permit the funeral of Albert Turner, the murderer, to be held in it, and the remains had to be buried Saturday from an undertaker's shop.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS

—A monument to the Union soldiers of Mason was unveiled at Maysville, yesterday.
 —The democrats of Pulaski have nominated Squire J. J. Watson for the legislature.
 —The Ohio prohibitionists, after a three days' convention, nominated a full State ticket.
 —Those who are pestered by prohibition will be defeated in Texas by 60,000 majority.
 —At Rickport, Indiana, George Nichols shot and killed his divorced wife and then himself.
 —Gov. Hill has just signed a bill giving bicyclers the same rights on the public highways as other persons and the boys are jubilant.
 —The wife of Hon. Hamilton Fish, Secretary of State under President Grant, died at New York, after a long illness.
 —The bond of E. L. Harper, late vice president of the Fidelity National Bank of Cincinnati, has been increased to $200,000.
 —The high license law goes into effect in Minnesota Friday, the minimum of license in cities of 10,000 or over being $1,000, and in smaller places $500.
 —Mrs. John Vaughn, of Pulaski county, by mistake gave her two-year-old child a morphine powder that had been prescribed for herself, and it died.
 —In a mountain cave near Cookville, Tennessee, 60 skeletons have been found. It is claimed they are the remains of men that were robbed and murdered at different times years ago.

—Mayville is happy over having struck gas at 350 feet.

—The Giant Tobacco Company of Louisville failed for $100,000.

—I. C. Ramsey beat Judge Pailpills for the democratic nomination for superintendent of county schools in Wayne.

—A Washington paper asserts that Secretary of War Endicott tendered his resignation to the President last week.

—James McElroy, the negro convicted of the murder of farmer Mart, was hung at Henderson Friday and died protesting his innocence.

—A Methodist preacher has skipped from LaPorte, Ind., with the hired girl, leaving a wife with six children, about to be confined again.

—At Chatham, N. J., Sunday, John Wilson shot and killed his wife and afterward himself. Eight children were made orphans by the awful crime.

—By the premature explosion of a blast on a turnpike in Jessamine, John Bradshaw had both of his eyes put out and J. W. King was fatally injured.

—A band at Jersey City threw a lighted lamp at a woman, but missed her and the lamp exploding set fire to and burned up her child. He was captured after a chase and is now in jail.

—A New York paper says Maria Halpin, whose name was used in the last presidential campaign, has been married at Rochelle, New York, to Albert Secord, an uncle of her former husband.

—The business failures for the first half of the year in the United States are reported to be $1,212 against $1,156 for the same period in 1886. The liabilities were $55,138,000, against $50,431,000 in 1886.

—George Jekel was discharged on his examining trial for the killing of his sweetheart at Jeffersonville. It will be remembered that she was found dying in her father's parlor and that he claimed that she took his pistol from his pocket while he slept and shot herself.

—The President has pardoned Thomas Baller, the counterfeit, who in 1875 was sentenced to 30 years in the Albany penitentiary. He was the most dangerous criminal of his day and his sentence was for the longest time ever given for the offense. He is an old man now, broken down in health and the President thinks for this reason his release can do no harm.

MARRIAGES.

—The Emperor of China is soon to be married and a million of dollars are to be spent on the festivities.

—We tender congratulations and good wishes to Mr. Walker Fry, of the Danville Tribune, on his accession to the noble army of Benedicta. He was married last week in Memphis, to Miss Julia Lehnner, who is said to be a very charming young lady.

DEATHS.

—Mrs. T. J. Leske died at Brodhead on Sunday of consumption.

—Bishop Shorter, of the African Methodist Church is dead at 78.

—Luke Poland, who had served in both Houses of Congress from Vermont, is dead of apoplexy.

—Mrs. Mary Owsley Evans, wife of Geo. W. Evans, Esq., died yesterday morning of a paralytic stroke, in the 56th year of her age. She was a most estimable lady, a devoted member of the Baptist Church and a true and earnest Christian. Her husband and six children, all grown save one, survive her and in their terrible loss a sympathizing community unites in condolence. The funeral will occur at the Baptist church, Crab Orchard, at 2:30 this afternoon and the interment in the Lancaster cemetery at 4:30.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP

—A small crowd, no stock, no sales and little business make up the dull report for July court day.

—Clark, Warder & Co. have recently negotiated for 2,000 bushels of new wheat at 65 cents per bushel. —[Glasgow News.]

—Mr. K. L. Tanner has bought several crops of wheat for his Favorite Mills at 60 cents and the rise of the market during the next month.

—In Clark county 3,000 bushels of blue-grass seed delivered on the cars sold at 50 cents and engagements are being made at 60 cents for September.

—William Gibson sold his farm near Duxter Station, Woodford county, containing 170 acres, to Mason, Ford & Co., Frankfort, for $50 and $60 per acre.

—More Masters delivered the first new wheat of the season Tuesday to Smith & Rurick at 72 cents per bushel; he sold about 400 bushels. —[Jessamine Journal.]

—Mule colts are scarce this year and the prices at selling time will be proportionately high. We have heard of some engagements for good ones at $100 each. —[Anderson News.]

—I will be in Stanford on or about the 15th of this month with 20 head of cattle, 3 yoke of oxen and 600 sheep. Those wishing to buy can be accommodated. J. M. Maxwell.

—Lee, Hudson & Co. this week purchased in Garrard and Madison counties, 20 head of mules ranging from 15 hands 1 inch to 16 1/2 hands high at prices from $125 and $180. —[Danville Advocate.]

—FOR SALE.—An extra good Jersey cow in full milk—her two year old heifer due to calve this fall and her yearling heifer. I offer these animals because I don't need them and they will be sold at a bargain. W. H. Miller, Stanford, Ky.

—While Mr. Joe Patterson was cutting wheat on his place Wednesday, near Wilmore, the machine caught fire from a hot box and burned up almost in five minutes. This is the first case of this kind on record in this county. —[Jessamine Journal.]

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—Secret societies are now taking in the negro children and all the pennies they can raise. There are several "lodges" here now.

—Mrs. Mary E. Luckhart, of this place, widow of S. B. Luckhart, a soldier of the Mexican war, has been granted a pension.

—Mr. B. F. Reeder, who was bitten by a rat and who came near eating the pearly gates in consequence, is now thought to be getting well.

—There will be a large delegation of un-terried democrats in attendance at the district barbecue to be held in Elkin's woods, in Garrard county on the 14th.

—Knee breeches, white flannel shirts and immense neckties are becoming fashionable among our young men; and they just go wild over the game of lawn tennis.

—"The Salt River Tigers," commanded by the revolutionary veteran, Phil Marks, will parade the streets to-day and afterwards listen to an oration at the courthouse.

—Some of us have great respect for the nation's birthday (July 4th) and have consequently closed our business houses, but if you will get in the back doors are not always locked.

—Sol and Bob Williams, two negro boys, were arrested, tried and held over on Saturday for stealing some cash from James Shearen, a white man. About the truth of it was that Shearen bet with the negroes on a game of cards and lost and then he "kicked."

—At an election of officers held on the 1st inst. by Central Lodge No. 8, I. O. O. F., the following were chosen: A. S. McElroy, N. G.; B. J. Durham, V. G.; S. F. McGuire, R. S.; R. S. Russell, P. S.; S. F. Frye, Treas.; George Smith, P. G.; B. Masowaring, O. G.

—During the term just closed Central Lodge has added 20 members to her list by initiation and 12 by cards of diploma from other lodges. "Old Central" has a history of 45 years and many of Boyle county's most respected citizens have their names enrolled on their statistical record.

—Sam Moore, who lives on the Lebanon road between Danville and Parkersville, and a young man named Hayes, who lives near Junction City, had a quarrel Saturday evening when Moore shot Hayes with a shot gun, badly shattering his hip. Moore is expected to surrender himself to the authorities this (Monday) morning.

GARRARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT.

Lancaster.

—A Knight of Labor lodge has been organized here. Forty members have been enrolled.

—Rev. Frank Cheek, of Danville, preached at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening.

—Business went on as usual in the city yesterday. Our people are very fond of work. There isn't a lazy man in town.

—Hon. Henry Watterson has, in a letter to R. H. Tomlinson, Esq., announced his intention to be present at the barbecue on July 14.

—In a difficulty at Kirksville, Saturday, between two negroes, one of them struck the other on the head with a stick, fracturing his skull from the effects of which he died on Sunday. I could not learn the particulars.

—William H. Greenleaf and wife, of St. Louis, are here visiting their relatives. "Squinter" looks very pale owing to his recent illness. Tom Bush, of St. Louis, is visiting his parents here. Tom has grown wonderfully.

—Mr. El Russell and niece, Miss Lida Russell, of Breckinridge, Mo., are visiting at Drs. Herring and Fisher's. Capt. Elkin came to town yesterday and was very much surprised to find that it was the glorious 4th. He was under the impression that it was the 25th of June. John H. Woodcock came up from Somerset to meet with the Boone Club. He returned to that place yesterday. He says Bro. Burnes' meeting is progressing admirably.

—I spent one day with the D. Boone Club, which is now in Camp at island No. 10, on the Hanging Fork. I was introduced to all the braves belonging to the club. They are all regular bucks and I should think would look very ferocious in their war paint, particularly Chief "American Horse" and "Red Seaven." The dinner was excellent but savored more of civilization than I imagine the dinners of Boone did. The ancient medicine man of the tribe is quite feeble and is tenderly cared for by the braves. May he and all of them be long in the land.

—Napoleon B. Price, known and loved by all our people as "Uncle Poly," died at his late residence near Lancaster on July 1st. By his death Garrard loses a good citizen and his family a kind husband and indulgent father. He was born in Garrard county in 1812 and lived here all his life. In 1843 he married Miss Harriet Stewart, of Boyle county, who together with five children survive him. He was a brother of Admiral Cicero Price, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and the venerable Dr. Jennings Price, of Lancaster. He was a life long member of the Christian church and held the office of deacon at the time of his demise. His funeral was preached by E. D. G. W. Yancy, on Saturday afternoon, and his remains laid to rest in the Lancaster cemetery.

—The Standard Oil Company is contemplating piping natural gas to Chicago from Indiana.

—T. E. Pepper, a whisky drummer from Lexington, was perhaps fatally done up in a hotel at Logansport, Indiana, where he held a disturbance.

—Miles Payton asks us to state that the 15th annual meeting of the Colored Missionary Convention will be held with the Christian church here July 19-24.

THE BICYCLE RACES.—A pretty fair crowd attended the races at Farris' course Saturday and the day was greatly enjoyed by the young people. The only drawback was a lack of system and the absence of a regular programme, but it was the boys' first attempt and we are not disposed to be hypercritical.

The first race was a half mile heat for the championship of Madison, Boyle, Garrard, Marion and Lincoln counties. There were three starters: Turley, Richmond; Taylor, Danville; Weidinger, Stanford. Weidinger got by far the best start, but before a quarter of a mile was run he was passed by Turley and it was nip and tuck between them until on the down grade to home Weidinger passed him and crossed the line about two lengths ahead. Taylor was, literally speaking, not in the race at all, having gotten but a little over two thirds around the track when Weidinger stopped at home. Turley withdrew from the race for the want of wind and Taylor conceded Weidinger the winner. Weidinger's time was 1 minute and 45 seconds.

The second race was for the best buy rider. Ben Wearen and Julien Bourne were the only contestants and the gold medal for that race was easily won by Wearen, who is an excellent rider for one so young, although Bourne did remarkably well.

The free for all race was the most exciting and in fact the best of the races. Those entered were El H. Croninger, Covington; August Weidinger, Stanford; C. H. Jenkins, Louisville. Weidinger had a splendid start and ran several lengths ahead until about a quarter of a mile was run, when he was passed by both Croninger and Jenkins, who kept their respective places throughout the race, with Croninger coming out victor by about three lengths.

The Lincoln county championship was won by Dr. W. B. Penny. It was a quarter mile heat and was run in 42 seconds by him on the last heat. There were four starters and three heats were run.

The mile dash was run by J. F. Adams, Louisville; Robert White, Stanford; J. W. Goodin, Louisville. It was won by Adams with 100th second. White ran well, but stood no chance with such riders.

The five mile dash was looked forward to as the one in which most interest would be taken, but when it was found that there were only two entries and those two being gentlemen not known locally, the interest ceased. Croninger and Jenkins ran and up to the time 2 1/2 miles were run they were not separated 20 feet. On this round Jenkins was struck with a pain and was compelled to retire from the race. Croninger ran only four miles and was declared winner. The time was 15 minutes and 8 seconds.

The foot race was enjoyed to a considerable extent and was won by Robert Hall on the second heat. Those entered were R. G. Hall, Irish Bright, George Penny, Thomas Robinson. The run was 100 yards and was won by Hall in 11 seconds. Bright won second place.

NOTES

Mr. Willie A. Tribble was very conspicuous for his absence.

Some of the "wicked" boys bet as high as 15 cents on the races.

George C. Keller was musical director and a better one we have seldom seen.

George Penny sold favorite in the foot race, but to keep up with the derby fashion he was beaten.

Captain J. B. Hubbs was as busy as a hen with one chicken and did his best to get order out of chaos.

Every man, woman and child was supplied with a walking cane and all were won at Young's cane booth.

The music by "Prof." Lott's orchestra was good and the light fantastic was tripped a good part of the day.

Dr. W. B. Penny could be seen on every side and attended to very admirably the heavy business that rested on his shoulders.

Horace Beddo, "the Louisville bicycle man," was on hand and assisted the boys greatly. Beddo is as good a mixer as he is efficient in his business.

Some very brave boys participated in the riding. They showed their bravery in other things as well as in the racing. A little sawdust or an extra pair or so of hose would have improved the appearance of things.

The judges were C. H. Johnston, J. W. Goodin and Horace Beddo, all of Louisville. Their decisions were all satisfactory and the boys desire to return their thanks to them.

TOM FERRELL won the $32 sulkey put up for rent by Mack Bruce yesterday.

LOST.—An amber brooch between the Hustonville toll-gate and the Creamery. Finder will leave at this office and receive reward.

CRAB ORCHARD, LINCOLN COUNTY.

THE barn of Mr. Sim A. Middleton, near Crab Orchard, was burned Saturday night, it is supposed by the carelessness of a tramp. Loss $300 or $400.

—Our accounts are ready and we ask those indebted to us to please call and settle at once. We need the money and must have it. Jones & Fulber.

—In Holquin, Ohio, a workman built a coal fire in his sleeping family room and placed on it several leaves of tobacco, having been told that it would prove a preventive for small-pox. In the morning the man his wife and eight children were found suffocated to death.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
 The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sore, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chittblains, Corns and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Penny & McAllister.

JULY 1ST, 1887.

Your Accounts are due and ready
PLEASE PAY PROMPTLY.

Unpaid Accounts of 1886 not Settled at once will be Collected by an Officer.

BRUCE & McROBERTS,

A. R. PENNY,

PHARMACIST,

Drugs, Books, Stationery and Fancy Articles.

JEWELER.

The Largest Stock of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry and Silverware.

FRUIT JARS

—AT—

T. R. WALTON'S.

FRUIT CANS

—AT—

T. R. WALTON'S

SCYTHES & SNATHS

—AT—

T. R. WALTON'S.

BACON WANTED

—BY—

T. R. WALTON.

JOE F. WATERS.

JOHN P. DAVIS.

WATERS & DAVIS,

—Dealers In—

Groceries, Hardware, Queensware, Glassware, Etc.

MAIN STREET. STANFORD, KY.

Our stock is comprehensive and brand new and prices suit even the closest of close buyers. Come to us early and often.

Stanford Ky., July 5, 1887

E. O. WALTON, - Business Manager.

I. & N. LOCAL TIME CARD

Mail train going North..... 12:50 P. M.
 Express train going South..... 1:45 A. M.
 Express train going North..... 1:50 A. M.
 Then above is calculated on standard time. Solar is about 20 minutes faster.

K. C. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Trains leave toward K. C. and 7:20 A. M.
 Returning, arrive at 8:55 P. M.

LOCAL NOTICES.

The best ready mixed paints are to be had at A. H. Penny's.

Ask your grocer for the Cincinnati Baking
 Co.'s crackers and cakes.

WATCHES and Jewelry repaired on short notice and warranted by A. R. Penny.

STANDARD ready mixed paints, quality and durability guaranteed at McKibben & Stagg's.

A COMPLETE stock of jewelry, latest style, Rockford watches especially. A.
 R. Penny.

THE firm of Penny & McAllister, having dissolved, the accounts are ready for settlement. Come at once and settle. You may save cost.

PERSONAL.

—Miss MAY ADAMS, of Mr. Vernon, is the guest of Miss Anna Sparks.

—Miss MOLLIE TOWN, of Stanford, is the guest of Mrs. Smith Bingham.

—Miss LIZZIE ELLIS, of Stanford, is visiting Mrs. H. J. McKibben.

—Misses MATTIE and MARGIE OWEN
 are in Paris, the guests of friends.

—MR. E. L. HAYDEN, of Springfield, Mo., is back on a visit to relatives.

—Misses M. C. and C. C. WILLIAMS, of Mt. Vernon, were in town Sunday.

—Miss BETTIE A. STUBBS, of High Dr.
 chard, is with Mrs. J. C. Carpenter.

—Miss MAY DELLY, of Upper Gervard,
 is with Miss Fannie Wright, of this county.

—Miss MARY LADY, of Richmond,
 is visiting Mrs. John J. McKibben.

—T. E. STINK, the clever young disembodied man, was up to the bicycle race.

—Miss NETTIE INNIS, of Paris, is the guest of the cousin, Miss Dora Spontaneous near town.

—Misses FANNIE WALKER, and Mildred
 Lewis are visiting Mrs. Ben Spaulding, at Lebanon.

—Miss SALLIE HARRISON, of Cincinnati,
 is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Hocker, and other friends.

—Miss PHIL SODEN, of Louisville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H.
 Dudderar.

—Miss LIA WELSH, a handsome young lady from Nicholasville, is the guest of Mrs. M. L. Bourne.

—MR. AND MRS. BRECKINRIDGE JONES,
 of St. Louis, and their bouncing baby boy, Reid, are guests of Mr. John M. Reid.

—Miss GEORGE WALKER, of Stanford, is spending a few weeks with Misses Heda and Amanda Larn on Third avenue.—(Courtier Journal.)

—Misses CLEO WILLIAMS, of Mr. Vernon, and Jennie Kennedy, of Craddock, are with Misses Mattie and Zila Williams,
 on lower Main street.

—Miss S. L. WHITEHEAD, of Mr. Vernon, is the guest of Mrs. J. L. D. Chandler, at Mr. W. E. Ramsey's. Mrs. Chandler continues ill.

—Our old friend, Capt. Frank J. White, at last to get a Mexican pension. Those with him are now in order, Captain, and don't you forget it.

—Misses MAMIE BRYANT, of Clifton Forge, Va., and Bessie Bryant, of Bristol, Tenn., arrived Saturday and are with Misses Fannie Hill and Mildred Lewis.

—Col. JOHN B. FIST declines the flattering call made on him to become a candidate for the Senate, because he is not old enough, according to the constitution, to serve, if he was elected.

—The Jenkins reporter of the Lancaster hop in the INTERIOR JOURNAL left out the name of one of our very nicest young ladies, Miss Jennie Kennedy, who was dressed in white and looked charmingly.—(Cordonville Tribune.) The omission was an oversight, which we regret and which we hope Miss Jennie will excuse,
 for she must know it was unintentional.

LOCAL MATTERS.

BORN, to the wife of Jeff Jones on Friday
 a girl.

FINE line of Candles just received at A.
 A. Warren's.

NOBODY observed the glorious 4th here,
 not even the banks or Capt. Richards, both institutions being kept open all day.

Those indebted to me will please come forward and settle at once. I ask this and shall expect my creditors to favor me with an early settlement. I need the money.
 Mrs. Kate Dudderar.

THAT accomplished orator, Senator Jas.
 W. Bryan, candidate for lieutenant governor, will speak at Liberty, July 16 and at Jamestown, July 18, at 1 o'clock in each instance. The people should turn out and listen to the finest stump speaker of the day.

WASHING MACHINE.—Messrs. H. T.
 Wilson, B. P. McAllister and M. W. Rose
 have established headquarters at Dr.
 Bourne's here and will give our citizens a chance to purchase the Florence Washer,
 said to be the most perfect thing of the kind ever invented. See testimonials elsewhere.

READ Bruce & McRoberts' ad. It might save you a few dollars.

A NEW lot of collars and cuffs and plain and bosom shirts at Bruce & McRoberts'.

MY accounts will be ready for you by July 1st. Please call and settle H. C.
 Rupley.

PARTIES having accounts with me will
 please call and settle and greatly oblige.
 A. A. Warren.

LITTLE JIMMY GIVENS, son of Dr. Carpenter, was seriously cut in the head by falling from a buggy, dashed against a post
 by a runaway horse.

We give fair warning to all who are indebted to us that if they do not come in and settle by July 15th, we will put the accounts in the hands of an officer for collection. Owsley & Craig.

THE Monmouth Hotel to be given by the McElroy Gleasons to-night at George H. Bruce's will be a delightful couple of hours for all who attend. Admission 25 cents, which includes refreshments.

ABOUT all that was done by the county court yesterday was to reduce some wrong assessments and to adjudge Mr. A. Miller's will to probate. It appoints his wife executrix and gives her all of his estate.

KILLED.—Jim McGarity, who used to keep bar for Eugene Portman, shot and killed Bob Brinton at Jellies yesterday in a row, which originated in McGarity's harbor. Brinton's body was brought to Willoughby, where his friends live.

DEATH.—George Bell, after an illness of four weeks, of a brain and spinal affection, died Saturday afternoon, aged about 25. It will be remembered that he interferred in a row between his father, Billy Bell, and his mother, and that he shot the old man dead
 when he endeavored to smother him for it.
 He has been drinking around deal since the sad and sudden death hastened his death.

THE Lancaster (Gibson) Club ought to draw a full house here Thursday night.
 The event that the pretty young girls go through is wonder to behold while the modest beauties of the programme will be delightful. A number of who by experimental contests will be given, besides some instrumental pieces that cannot be improved upon. The proceeds are for the benefit of Bright's church and everybody should go and thus contribute to a good cause. Mr. Harry A. Evans is manager and sure our people may expect a real treat.

SERIOUS CHARGE.—On a warrant sworn out by C. N. Warner, an L. & N. detective, Ex-Sheriff Menefee, appointed special officer
 by Judge Carson, arrested W. H. Pollock Sunday morning and took him to the Staufferman jail, charged with breaking into and robbing a car at Lebanon Junction of two boxes of shoes, the property of Bruce & McRoberts and D. W. Vandevlee.
 The charge was committed last March and although Pollock maintains his innocence
 the facts seem to be against him. He is a brackman on the road and his wife and two children live at Rowland.

A PRETTY HOW TO DO.—Thursday last
 on a warrant charging him with aiding and abetting F. B. in the murder of the negro, Whitley, Sheriff Newland went up to Crab Orchard and brought back Stephenson before Judge Vernon for trial. Judge Hen-ford and W. T. Stephenson, father of the accused, came down with him. The prisoner wanted to waive an examination, but acting County Attorney R. C. Warren objected and the trial was fixed for Saturday.
 The law says plainly that a man charged with a felony must either go to jail or be placed in the hands of a peace officer, but it seems that it was ignored and the man permitted to go off with his father and attorney. The consequence was that Stephenson failed to appear at the appointed time and is now a fugitive from justice. This seems to be a pretty loose way to do business, and if permitted to prevail there will be little use in arresting a man for any crime.

THE Club meeting at Mr. H. H. Baughman's Friday night was the most elegant affair of the season. In fact we doubt if a larger, hand-omer and happier crowd ever gathered in this section. The grand old mansion with its large and airy rooms, spacious halls and beautiful grounds are especially adapted for such entertainments,
 and its clever owner had left nothing undone to add to the enjoyment of the guests.
 On arrival the couples were ushered in rooms up stairs to prepare their toilets, after which little Miss Sallie Baughman saw that they were re-united and escorted to the beautifully furnished and decorated parlor.
 There Misses Kittie and Annie Baughman
 and Mr. James H. Baughman took charge of them and acted as entertainers in a manner that at once demonstrated their tact
 and their ability to make everybody feel at home. Dancing, strolling on the lawn in the light of a beautiful harvest moon and various other amusements were indulged in till 11 o'clock, when refreshments, consisting of ices, cake, fruits, nuts, &c., all excellently prepared and beautifully arranged, were served and enjoyed with a zest
 that proved how heartily they were appreciated. Afterwards the former gayeties were resumed and kept up till 1 o'clock
 when the happy crowd broke up and with thankful hearts to those who had been the means of affording them so much enjoyment repaid to their homes. The writer desires to express his highest appreciation of the event and to return his warmest thanks to the trio, who so delightfully entertained, as well as to the kind host and hostess for an evening of real enjoyment long to be remembered.

SEVERAL light showers have fallen in the last two days, but hardly enough to lay the dust. In some localities in the county
 there was a sufficient fall to do some good.

FAIR.—Contributors enclosed yesterday in getting subscriptions to the amount of $700
 to hold a county fair at Ferris' track this summer. A thousand dollars is wanted and will likely be raised without difficulty.

THE Hustonville National Bank cleared
 over five per cent. during the last six months, the best showing yet. President E. L. Alcorn and Cashier J. W. Hocker, were both here yesterday feeling proud over the success of their excellent institution.

I HAVE sold out my business at Junction
 City and ask those indebted to me to please come forward and settle. An early settlement will save both of us trouble and expense and I will have to put my accounts
 in the hands of an officer if they are not paid
 in a short while. J. W. Vansardall.

THERE will be 60 performers in the entertainment at Walton's Opera House on Thursday night and every one of them drilled to perfection. It will be worth your time and money to see them. Go by all means. Admission 50 cents, reserved seats 75, to be had at McKibben & Stagg's.

SHOT BY A SHERIFF'S posse.—Sheriff
 T. D. Newland, learning that Tom Fish had been seen in the vicinity of Crab Orchard, since his alleged departure to evade arrest for the murder of Joe Whitley, took his deputies, O. S. Newland and J. E. Cook, together with a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from justice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor
 Sam M. Owens, Marshal John Newland
 and Messrs. I. M. Bruce, W. G. Ramsey, J.
 A. Allen and Thomas Hickey and went
 Saturday night to capture him and his
 partner in crime, George Stephenson,
 who has also become a fugitive from jus-
 tice. The posse went in search of Fish's
 father and made a thorough search from
 center to center, but found nothing. In the
 end they gave up and returned home with-
 out a shot. The posse was composed of
 three men and a posse consisting of Jailor

